We are getting into the heart of the summer season and ladies (or employers), our men think that they can do it all!

Our "Anthem Chamber Plan Liaison" sent out this letter to help you to:

Keep your men in their prime!

What percentage of our workforce is male, between the ages of 20 and 50? When men feel healthy, they often neglect their preventive care and regular health screenings. But men aged 20 to 50-something might not be as healthy as they think. Consider the following statistics about the health of American men: Only 37% get exercise on a regular basis; 23% are smokers; 20% have heart disease; 31% have high blood pressure; 75% are overweight; 33% are obese; 12% are in fair or poor health.

Even men in their prime need regular check-ups to stay healthy. Some of the most important exams, screenings, and immunizations for working age men are: Cholesterol. Men should be screened for lipid disorders every 5 years or so starting at age 35. Screenings should begin earlier and take place more frequently for men who are diabetic, overweight, or have a family history of unhealthy cholesterol levels. Prostate cancer. Men should decide, with their doctors, whether to be screened for prostate cancer annually, starting at age 50. Screenings should begin at age 45 or earlier for men who are African American or have a family history of prostate cancer. Diabetes. By age 45, men should begin to have regular screenings for diabetes. Men who are overweight, obese, have a family history of diabetes, or are African American, Latino, Native American, or of Asian descent should begin screenings sooner. Testicular cancer. Most commonly occurring in men between 20 and 39, testicular cancer is often curable if it is found early. While testicular cancer only accounts for about 1% of the cases of cancer in men, it is important that men speak with their doctors to determine their own level of risk. Tetanus, measles, flu... Childhood vaccinations require booster shots throughout adulthood to prevent diseases that can cause serious illness or even death under some circumstances. Immunizations prevent the spread of disease. To encourage healthy preventive care habits among the men in your workforce, visit anthem.com/timewellspent, and click on "Men's Wellness." You'll find free articles, posters, and funny video clips that will encourage your employees to take preventive care seriously.

JUNE!
The Annual Farmers' Market is up & running in it's new permanent home, THANKS PATASKALA!
The Sterling Theatre will start showing movies on June 10th, YEA!

Dear Members,

I hope everyone is finally enjoying the warm weather, and starting to plan their exciting summer entertainment. Of course we can't forget about work, this allows us to network in more desirable places (golf course, the lake, etc.) Whatever your plans, I wish everyone a safe and wonderful summer.

The Chamber has been busy checking on and planning events for the members and the community. The first event is the Farmer's Market which will run every Friday from June 3rd to Sept. 9th from 4:00 to 7:00pm in Historic Downtowne Pataskala. The new Veterans' Green is really taking shape and by the time this reaches you, we will have had our first market day. If you didn't make it, make sure you come during it's run!

The Sterling Theatre's first movie for the summer series, "Charlotte's Web" will be held on Friday, June 10th. In keeping with the carnival and farm theme in Charlotte's Web, The Nutcracker will host a children's petting zoo, $3 pony rides, along with children's carnival games with small prizes, and numerous photo opportunities for parents. The fun begins at 5:00pm on the Jefferson St. grass parking lot directly behind the Main St., Pataskala Methodist Church and the Sterling Theater. The movie will start at 6:30pm and only 350 tickets are available at Nutcracker Family Restaurant for $5 each.

The next Big Event will be the Flags Over Pataskala. This event involves: Flags being displayed throughout Pataskala, a Community Picnic and Entertainment, Golf Outing and Flag lowering ceremony at the Farmer's Market.

1. First, Flags Over Pataskala involves the American Flag being displayed throughout the community on Flag Day June 14, over 100 American Flags will fly over the streets of Pataskala in a beautiful and moving celebration that will continue through the 4th of July.
2. On the evening of June 14, we will host a Community Picnic from 5:30-6:30 at Old Fire Station #1 on Jefferson Street with entertainment following at the newly restored Sterling Theater in the Village, doors open at 7:00 pm.

3. Thursday June 16 will be the Flags Over Pataskala Golf Outing held at Broadview Golf Course. The Golf Outing involves two 9-hole Scrambles for men, women and children of all skill levels. 9:30 am shotgun start for the first flight, lunch at 11:45 am and 1:00 pm shotgun start for the second flight.
4. To wrap up the week, Flags Over Pataskala will provide entertainment and flag lowering at the Veterans' Green in conjunction with the Farmer's Market Friday June 17th. The Pataskala Rotary Club has revived this event, so please let them know we are so glad to have it back!

So there is lots going on in our community this month, so stay tuned. There is more to come!

Sincerely,
